

SUMMER BOOK STUDY

Join our parish as we read two books this summer!

We will meet on the dates below* to discuss their content and explore questions and responses.

BOOK #1

War and the Bible
by St. Nikolai Velimirovich

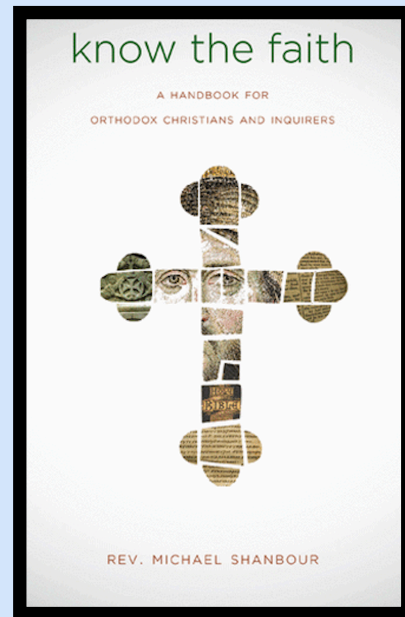

This important and timely book about the Orthodox understanding of war explains in depth the history of war throughout history and poses key questions such as "where is God in war?", and "why does He allow it to happen?"

Discussion: Sunday, July 10

BOOK #2

Know the Faith: A Handbook for Orthodox Christians & Inquirers
by Fr. Michael Shanbour

Know the Faith presents Orthodox Christianity in a way Western Christians can understand, grounding each point in Scripture and patristic theology, with comparisons to Catholic and Protestant beliefs.

Discussion: Sunday, August 14

All book study meetings will be at church on Sunday's following Divine Liturgy (in the board room/ high school Sunday school room). We will plan to meet for one hour.

Use the "Orthodox Book Club Discussion Sheet" as you read:

(or thru the QR code to the right).

We will use this sheet when we meet on July 10 and August 14.

All invited to attend!

Please contact Fr. Panteleimon (father.pgd@gmail.com) if you plan on participating.
